Editorial Comments.

The Albanian runips has been lost sight of in the shuffle.

England announces that her navy is ready for war. In fact John Bull is always ready.

It doesn't seem to be helping the Serbs much to be on the south side of the river Save.

Carbajal's peace delegates have reached Carranza and an early peace agreement is expected.

Percy and Shack gave out their final claim Thursday, giving Beckham 27,500 majority. To-day will tell the tale.

A carp has 4,386 bones, but there are some bones besides those in fish, as can be proven by examining the heads of ball players.

It has never been explained what Judge Smith thought he was drinking when he got hold of carbolic acid in that Clinton drug store.

'Uncle Joe' Cannon has entered for the Congressional race at Danville, Ill., and there will be a rattling of dry bones and other things.

The Paducah boy who cut off a coat-tail that stopped up his peephole in the ball park fence, evidently didn't intend to have his fun curtailed.

Joe Cannon in Illinois and Sherman Ball in the Fourth Kentucky district are Republican candidates for Congress. They might combine and make a sure bet.

Austria is in the attitude of a big bull dog jumping on a small fice, being twelve times as large as Serbia. Most fair-minded people will be for the little dog in the fight.

Gov. McCreary has two enthusiastic newspapers anyhow. The way the Princeton Leader whooped it up for the Governor this week was amusing if not convincing.

Jim Lemon has quit hurrahing for Beckham long enough to give himself a fine testimonial for veracity. We are willing to admit that Jim is more truthful than his candidate.

If Gov. McCreary will appoint Gus Thomas judge down in the first district this time he will find that Gus will never pick up the wrong glass. He has an educated nose.

Senator Camden is to present the Kentucky Bar Association with a gavel made from a dogwood tree on John Marshall's old home place. Of course it will have the bark on it.

A Williamsport, Pa., bride who married against her wishes to oblige her parents, jumped into a well before the honeymoon ended. It is thought she believed "All's well that ends well."

Bills to reinstate Capt. John H. P. P. and Frank K. Hill, of the navy, recently retired by the "plucking board," were favorably voted on by a House committee. They maintain that they were plucked before they were ripe.

It is real good to see some evidence that the editor of the Hopkinsville Kentuckian has come to life again. Once one of the most brilliant of Kentucky paraphraser, he has been apparently dead to the world for years. We hope he will not again lapse into innocuous desuetude.—Owensboro Messenger.

MR. KLEEMAN DEAD.

Mr. Wm. Kleeman, of Clarksville, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at his home. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

Wilson Rally.

A rally was held at the courthouse last night in the interest of the candidacy of Hon. A. E. Wilson for Governor. Judge J. S. Breathitt and John Feland were scheduled for speeches.

RUSSIA IS READY TO FIGHT FOR HER LITTLE ALLY, SERBIA

Germany's Ultimatum Demanding To Know Czar's Intentions Brings Quick and Positive Answer.

Hostilities Begun and Conflicting Reports Sent of The First Invasion By Austria-Serbs Invade Bosnia.

London, July 31.—An Exchange Telegraph company's dispatch from St. Petersburg says that Sergius Sazonoff, Russian foreign minister, replied to the German note stating that the mobilization of the Russian army was only partial and could not be stopped.

Austria's Version.

Vienna, July 31.—A semi-official dispatch reached here last night concerning the movements of Austrian troops says:

"The covering line of our troops on the River Drina has been pressed forward to the main arm of the river. There was some fighting during this advance, but not of a serious character. About ten Serbians were killed. Bands of Servians vainly attempted to harass the Austrians at Bjelina."

Bjelina is in the north corner of Bosnia, between the rivers Save and Drina.

Emperor Francis Joseph's arrival here to-day from Ischl was the occasion for one of the greatest demonstrations ever witnessed in Vienna. A crowd estimated at 30,000 gathered at the station and cheered the emperor with frenzied loyalty.

From all parts of the monarchy comes news of old officers and soldiers volunteering for active service. The volunteers include many of Bosnia's origin.

The following official dispatch was received here last night:

"About midnight machine gun fire was opened from Belgrade, and in reply the Austro-Hungarian monitors bombarded the city."

"At 1 o'clock in the morning the powder magazine in Belgrade blew up. At dawn the Servians made another unsuccessful attempt to destroy the bridge."

"As shots were fired from the Serbian customs house upon our troops, our artillery was trained upon the building, which was quickly demolished. This was followed by the sound of rifle fire. Simultaneously fires broke out at different points in Belgrade."

"During the Serbian attempts to blow up the bridge, sixteen Servians were captured by our men and taken to Peterwardein."

"It is rumored that serious disturbances have broken out in New Serbia, where the non-Servian elements are reported to have refused to enter the army."

The Other Side.

Belgrade, July 30.—The Austrians opened a heavy cannonade in their second attack on Belgrade at 11 o'clock last night. The guns of the Austrian monitors and the batteries at Semlin fired until 2 o'clock in the morning. Several buildings were damaged.

The Servians replied only occasionally. An Austrian gunboat was badly damaged. An attempt by the Austrians to cross the river was repulsed with severe losses by heavy infantry and machine gun fire. The rifle fire lasted until 4 in the morning. There were no Servian losses.

The Austrians made several other attempts to cross the rivers Save and Danube, but were everywhere driven back. It was reported they intended to renew their bombardment of Belgrade today.

To Resist British Attack.

Peking, China, July 31.—The German troops at Tien Tsin prepared to proceed to Tsing Tau, which it is understood will be attacked from the sea by the British fleet, if war should be declared.

Protection of foreigners throughout China in case of necessity will largely depend on the American and Japanese fleets.

Halifax Garrison.

Halifax, N. S., July 31.—Great activity on the part of the garrison at Halifax was indicated after the receipt, it is reported of a dispatch from the war office in London.

The royal Canadian field artillery of both companies stationed in the citadel were taken to the forts on transports. A special train will bring back the royal Canadian rifles stationed in Aldershot. It is reported the artillery will immediately man the forts in the harbors. Army officials declined to comment on the movements of the troops.

HOLD UP IN THE PARK

Bandits Rob Tourists in Yellowstone Park of $3,000.

TWO TURNED THE TRICK.

The Stage Coach Passengers Were Without Any Weapons.

Gardiner, Mont., July 31.—Stage coaches of four of the largest transportation companies operating in Yellowstone Park were held up Wednesday by two men. It is reported the passengers were robbed of a total of $3,000.

The hold ups occurred at different times at Spring Creek Canyon, four miles from Old Faithful, a geyser, and fifty-four miles from Gardiner.

Lieutenant-Colonel Brett has a large force of men pursuing the robbers who were reported heading towards the Jackson Hole country in Wyoming. In the hold ups one bandit robbed the passengers of the stages, the second man remaining behind, trees as a lookout.

The transportation companies offered rewards aggregating $500 for the bandits' capture.

The highwaymen had the advantage because the government regulations prevent any person except those with permits from carrying arms in the park. The bandit who did the actual work of robbing had only to cover the driver with his gun.

The exact location of the holdup was near Shoshone Point, between Old Faithful Inn and the Thumb lighthouse. As each of twenty-five stage coaches reached the spot the 165 passengers were forced to descend and place their money in a sack before one of the robbers.

The other highwayman prevented the coaches from retreating to Old Faithful Inn to give the alarm.

Dove Season Opened To-day.

The dove season opens to-day, and many lovers of the sport in this section are out on a hunt. The dry summer has proven good for the birds, and it is reported that they are plentiful.

CHILD IS CREMATED

In A Burning Dwelling House Near Kirkmansville.

HERSCHEL PERRY'S HOME.

Destroyed and His Little Son Is Burned To Death.

Thursday the house of Herschel Perry, near Gresham Chapel, in the neighborhood of Kirkmansville, caught fire at about noon. The conflagration is thought to have had its origin in a defective flue.

The family were all away from the house when it caught and it was burned to the ground. Mr. Perry's little baby boy was in the house and his clothes caught from the flames. The child was burned to death before the family could reach him.

CHRISTIAN CO. BENEFACTOR

Helps To Provide Elkton School With A New Dormitory.

Vanderbilt Training School at Elkton will have a new dormitory for use this fall that cost $20,000. The Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle says:

"The handsome building now in process of erection will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall term, September 2. This new building in its enlarged capacity was made possible through the munificence of Mr. Thomas H. Elliott, of Lafayette, Ky., and is to be called Walter Elliott Hall. It is constructed of brick, with stone foundation, to comport with the administration building and Josephine Elliott Memorial Hall. A large gymnasium and basketball floor is provided in the basement, while the second floor and third stories are designed for teachers' quarters and rooms for boys."

BUSY TIMES AT HOSPITAL

Aged Lady Hurt In Runaway Accident Received—Ten Other Patients.

Mrs. Mary Rickman, aged 80 years, who was badly injured in a runaway Wednesday, is at the Hospital doing well. Her head was cut and bruised and the bones of her left arm badly broken. She sustained other painful bruises and was quite painfully injured.

Mr. Chas. N. Johnson was taken to the Hospital Wednesday for an operation, which he underwent the same day. His condition is now favorable.

Mr. O. C. Bass was brought to the Hospital from Dawson Thursday in a serious condition. He had been there for several weeks seeking health.

Miss Mary Cushman continues to improve, from the recent operation she underwent.

Ben Warfield, who has typhoid fever, is getting along pretty well.

There are now eleven patients in the Hospital and two additional nurses have been added to meet the requirements of increased patronage.

Court at Murray.

Judge Hanbery will go to Murray Monday to open court. So far as known, no further move has been made in the prohibition injunction case.

Lawyer's Body Found.

The body of Elliott Marshall, a New York lawyer, who had been missing since July 23, was found in Russian River.

OFFICIAL PRIMARY

Election To Nominate Senators And Congressmen To-day.

LOCAL FIGHT APATHETIC.

Stanley and Kincheloe Will Carry Christian By Decisive Majorities.

The first statewide official primary election under the new law is being held to-day all over the State.

Local interest centers in the long term senatorial race. Beckham has a following in the county that may be considered formidable. Gov. McCreary's support will not run much over 100 votes. The total vote is expected to be about 2500 in the Democratic races. Beckham will receive about 625 votes, McCreary 125 and Stanley 1750, giving Stanley 100% majority. But for the fact that Beckham has fooled a good many voters as to his attitude on national prohibition, he would not run much stronger than McCreary. In the short term race the result is not indicated. The McCreary and Stanley men are both seemingly for Camden. Young and Smith will receive only scattering votes.

In the Congressional race Kincheloe will carry Christian county by a very decisive majority over Judge Henson. His nomination is regarded as a foregone conclusion.

Gov. Wilson is expected to carry this county for the Republican long-term nomination over Ernst. Alvan Clark has no opposition for the Congressional nomination. The haul Mosers will cut no figure in this county worth considering.

Out in the State, the only Congressman in danger of defeat is Bob Thomas. Prof. Chapman is running him a close race in the Third.

Saloons will be closed to-day and regular election hours will be observed. The polls will open in 32 precincts at 6 a. m. and close at 4 p. m.

Prompt returns from county results are expected at Stanley headquarters.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Of University of Virginia Organized Here Yesterday Morning.

Yesterday morning at 10 o'clock a meeting was held at the office of Hunter Wood & Son and a local association of the Alumni of the University of Virginia was organized. The purpose of the organization is to promote the welfare of the University in this section. An election of officers was held and Dr. Austin Bell was elected President, Dr. L. A. Tate, Vice-President; Frank Trice, Sec'y-Treas., and Hunter Wood, Jr., member of executive committee.

The society will hold annual meetings. The present members of the order are: John Stites, F. D. Trice, Dr. L. A. Tate, Dr. Austin Bell, Judge Douglas Bell, Hunter Wood, Sr., Hunter Wood, Jr., Jas. G. Winesler, of Paducah, Ed. L. Young, of Madisonville, J. M. Gordon, of Madisonville, B. B. Petrie, of Elkton, and Ben T. Perkins, of Elkton.

Cadets Made Officers.

Cadets of the Russian naval school have been promoted to the rank of officers. In addressing them the emperor said:

"I have given orders that you should be incorporated in the navy in view of the serious events through which Russia is passing. During your service as officers do not forget what I say to you—trust in God and have faith in the glory and greatness of our mighty country."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Congress

We are authorized to announce
HON. J. W. HENSON

a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress for the Second Congressional District, subject to the action of the primary to be held in August, 1914.

We are authorized to announce
HON. DAVID H. KINCHELOE, of Hopkins county, as a candidate for Congress from the Second district, subject to action of the democratic primary August, 1914.

SATURDAY AUGUST 1

Robert Taylor, an undertaker, shot and killed his brother, Thomas E. Taylor, a business rival, in a street at Jackson, Miss., and then killed himself.

W. P. Hobby, of Beaumont, Tex., publisher of the Enterprise, was nominated for lieutenant-governor in Saturday's democratic primary.
Practically complete returns give him a majority of about 20,000.

The Henderson Gleaner gives Judge Henson 2,000 majority in Henderson, 1,500 in Union and 700 in Webster and concedes Kincheloe no county except Hopkins. Henson's majority is predicted at 2,000 or 3,000.

Because he was about to lose his faithful team of horses through the foreclosure of a mortgage, Gottlieb Wigger, a farmer at Perry, Okla., shot and killed the animals, buried them in his pasture, and ended his own life over their grave.

Bishop Thomas Lillis of Kansas City has ordered that flowers be barred at future funerals in churches of his diocese. He declared he practice favors of vanity, and often works hardships on those who cannot afford it. He favored sending a memorial card to relatives of the person who had passed away.

Senator Johnson N. Camden made his maiden speech in the Senate Thursday. He asked unanimous consent that the senate pass the bill giving permission to the Fiscal Court of Pike county to build a wagon bridge over Tug Fork of the Big Sandy River, near Williamson, W.
Va., which was granted.

It is settled definitely that Attorney Gen. James C. McReynolds, of Tennessee, will be appointed by the President to the vacancy in the supreme court bench occasioned by the death of Justice Lurton, and it is believed that Thomas W. Gregory, of Texas, will be appointed attorney-general to succeed McReynolds. The nominations will be made in a few days.

Austria declares war on Serbia, a torate. If Russia backs up Serbia then Germany and Italy must help Austria under the agreement to do nation. Under a similar agreement England and France will have to help Russia, and there you are.

For a Rainy Day.

The careful husband had given his wife some money to put into the family sinking fund, but spent it.
Two or three days later she asked for more.

"Didn't I give you some last Monday?" he inquired in the well known manner of husbands under similar circumstances.

"Yes, but I spent it."

"Spent it? I thought you had laid it away for a rainy day."

"I did, Henry," she smiled sweetly. "I bought a rain-coat, an umbrella, and a pair of rubbers with it."—August Lippincott's.

Dumb Chills and Fever.

Douglasville, Tex.—"Five years ago I was caught in the rain at the wrong time," writes Miss Edna Rutherford, of Douglasville, "and from that time was taken with dumb chills and fevers, and suffered more than I can tell. I tried everything that I thought would help, and had four different doctors, but got no relief, so I began to take Cardui.
Now I feel better than in many months." Cardui does one thing, and does it well. That's the secret of its 50 years of success. As a tonic
there is nothing in the drug store like it. As a remedy for women's ills, it has no equal. Try it. Price

Murdered His Son-In-Law.

Eugene Newman, 18 years old walked into the office of town Clerk
William W. Cleary, in Harverstraw, a village not far from New York City, the other day to announce his marriage to the politician's daughter. The girl, the same age, and the young man had known each other for many years. They had run away and got married.

The young man decided that he would seek out his new father-in-law, who had for fourteen years been the Democratic boss of his neighborhood, and ask forgiveness. Instead the town clerk shot him to death. The young widow was prostrated as was her mother, and the relatives of the boy husband. Cleary waived examination and was held to the grand jury.

Good Luck or Hard Work?

The question of failure or success is such a wide one that the majority of people merely touch on it and attribute their condition to luck. Do you know what successful men say about luck? They scoff at it, declaring that good luck is another name for hard work, which rarely fails to bring rewards. Evading one's responsibilities or passing over opportunities means a bad mess of life, no matter what name you tack to it. Want of forethought is something for which each person is responsible, and it keeps many a man providing properly for his family and deprives good men of helpmates they expect to have in the women they marry.

QUINT TYLER'S BRIGADE.

(By H. H. Abernathy.)

Garrettsburg, Ky., July 25, 1914.

—One more millstone on the road to Eternity has been passed. Once more the bugle has sounded the call and our faithful little remnant has been called together to lay down the tolls and strife of labor for the day and rest under the shade of the mighty oaks that heard our youthful prattle. Once more we have met and retold "twice told tales" of boyhood pranks and victories or reverses as the case appeared.

Our school roll was called and the following "boys" answered "present": Buck Griffey, Punk Allen,
Walter Cornell, Tom Major, Kay
Fleming, John Northington, Irving
Davie, Neat Giles, Whit Ratford,
Henry Abernathy, Jim Wood, Jim
Taylor, Manny Cornell, Will Clements, John Clements, Mack Radford, Billie Radford, Jim Oldham and Floyd Giles.

The combined ages of this crowd account for 1,120 years spent on this mundane sphere.

Our honored president, as well as several other boys, was absent, but the loss was made up by the presence of several wives and daughters of some of the boys.

Of course no word can do justice
nor pen describe the taste and effect of meat barbecued by that master of the art of barbecuing, Calvin Kay Fleming. The search of the world might possibly find his equal but his superior has never been found. After that dinner the tales told, the friendly greetings we exchanged and the farewells said made impressions that we cannot describe or forget.

The writer of this article shook hands with boys that he not even seen for more than forty-six years.
Time has dealt greatly with some of the boys and some others show that they have received more than their share of the hardships of this life, yet these things are forgotten
when we clasp each other's hand and our hearts throb in unison as we think of our dead hero and remember his kind words of advice to the boys and remember his struggles to inculcate into our minds lessons of usefulness and happiness. The truly great are never forgotten and the life and teachings of Q. M. Tyler will ever be green spots of great pleasure in the minds of our boys who attended his school in 1866-7-8-9-10.

We elected the following officers
for one year:

Whit Radford, president.
Irving Davie, historian.

Henry Abernathy, secretary.

We agreed to meet July 24th, 1915.

We agreed to bring our wives and children; we can invite one or more friends who we think would enjoy the day and meeting with us. And now, boys, we have to separate to meet one year hence. Who knows how many of us may have crossed to that shore from whose bourne no traveler has ever returned? Let's make a desperate effort next July to be present and have our families with us. Look at the two lists below and see how fast the one is shortening and the other lengthening. Let us have a grand reunion worthy the name and worthy the memory of our dead hero.

PUMP
WATER

Pure gurgling, rippling water, fresh from deep ice cold wells, but you will need a Pump with which to do this.

After many years of experience in the Pump business, we have come to the conclusion that the "Red Jacket" So Easy to Fix and the Myers Deep and Shallow Well Pump, will cover any and all conditions that may arise in connection with elevating water, either by hand, Wind Mill or Gasoline Engine. This is due to the Mechanism of the Cylinder which is the heart of a Pump. Without "efficiency" in the Cylinder a Pump is worthless. That is where and how the Red Jacket and the Myers have established their reputation.

If you contemplate installing a system of Water Works, before doing so, we invite you to examine these pumps. It will be worth your while, besides save you Time and Money.

JOSEFA'S "BANDIT"

By HENRY KIRK.

When I was seventeen I had an adventure that comes to very few.

I went to a ball at the house of Don Antonio Fuentes, ten miles from ours, on the Carmel road. Don Antonio was a cousin of my mother. My aunt Mercedes was with me, and some of the servants, and I promised my father I would be home in good time. I wore a white gown, with a single string of my mother's pearls around my neck. There was a rose in my hair, just below the pearls. It was white, like a pearl itself.

I danced with Don Francisco. The people shouted and clapped their hands, and every man threw his hat upon the floor.

Don Francisco begged me for the rose in my hair, but what could I do? Twenty others had been before him. He was no more to me than the others, even though we had known each other from childhood, and our fathers before us.

Well, it grew late, and I told Don Antonio we would have to go. My aunt Mercedes was with Dona Arcadia. I could see she did not wish to go, but I had told my father.

"Francisco will go with you," said Don Antonio.

"No, he will not," I said. "There are enough of us."

"It is folly Josefa," cried Don Antonio. "Morelo has been seen in the hills."

"Well, Don Antonio," I said, "I am not afraid of all the Morelos that ever were. I think I would like to see a real bandit. If he should come our servants will frighten him away, and my Aunt Mercedes with one stroke of her fan could put fifty bandits to flight."

We said good night to Don Antonio and Dona Arcadia. When we got out into the patio there were twelve young men awaiting us. I waved them away. I would have none. Diego was there with our horses. He had taken care of me since I was a baby. I was as safe with him as with any man in the country.

The twelve men looked at me with their hats in their hands. I laughed. "We have ten miles to go," said I. "Will you think of me that long?"

Then we went out of the patio and down the hillside into the valley.

Diego rode with us, the rest of the servants ahead. They reached the river and disappeared in the willows by the ford. Soon we were in the water ourselves. As we climbed the top of the opposite bank I saw Diego look suddenly straight ahead of him queerly. I grasped the bridle of his horse.

"Diego!" I cried. "What is it?"

I looked ahead. A man upon a horse was coming toward us. He was so far away I could not see his face. He reached our men and stopped them.

"It is Morelo," I gasped.

"It is only a traveler, Nina Josefa," said Diego, but I could see he thought it was Morelo.

"Do not shriek, Aunt Mercedes," I whispered. "Perhaps he has not seen us and he will go away."

For our servants were moving on, the man with them.

"He is deceiving them," I gasped.

"It is Morelo. What shall we do? He knows I have been to Don Antonio's, and that I am wearing my mother's pearls, and that Aunt Mercedes has her topaz! We must reach him before he has a chance to slip away."

"No, Josefa," sobbed my Aunt Mercedes. "We shall all be murdered."

"With so many of us?" I asked.

Our horses went faster down the road. Our servants stopped and awaited us. We reached them, and I looked straight into the face of the man. He took off his hat and bowed to my Aunt Mercedes and to me. "I am Josefa Bernal," I said.

"And I—" he began.

"Yes, we know," I interrupted.

He bowed again and smiled, as if he did not mind, but I saw an old look upon his face. No doubt an adventure like this did not happen him very often.

"I am in good company," he said "for I am going to your father's. I was just asking the way."

"Since you have never been there before," I said, "we shall be glad to have you with us."

"Josefa!" cried my Aunt Mercedes.

"Ah," I said, "pardon me; I present you to my aunt, Dona Mercedes Castro."

We went on down the road. The air was in my face like some one's dead breath. Something choked me. I put my hand to my throat, but there was nothing there but my mother's pearls. In my terror, I could not help thinking how handsome he was—as an angel!

"Your father is not expecting me," he said.

"No," I replied. "You did not tell him you were coming."

"It is so late," he went on. "But I did not wish to stay anywhere else. Since I have met you I am doubly favored."

"We were at Don Antonio's," I said. "He wished some of them to come home with us, but I was not afraid. I am afraid of nothing," I said, and laughed.

But I was nearly dead with terror.

"He had seen my pearls," I thought, "and Aunt Mercedes' topaz, and he is going home to murder my father."

We were nearly at the end of the valley. Beyond us was a wood and the hill with our house. In the darkness of the trees he would murder me and take my pearls and my Aunt Mercedes' topaz.

"This wood is half a mile long," I cried. "Who will get through first?"

We flew into the darkness of the trees. We could see nothing but the dim line of the road. Our horses went on like the wind. Every moment I was expecting my death. I cried out in terror.

That awful choking came. I put my hand to my throat, but there was nothing there, not even—yes, the pearls were there, but any moment his hands might be.

"Diego!" I cried. "Diego! Diego!"

The blackness of the wood was like a wall before me; then it opened. I was at the foot of the hill. The road flew under the feet of my horse. There was some one coming.

Morelo! for I could hear the whizz of his rifle.

God in heaven, to have that thing around my neck with the pearls of my mother!

There was the house. The dog ran toward me, barking furiously. The horse stopped at the corridor I stumbled to the door and fell into the arms of my father.

"Get every one," I cried. "Morelo is coming."

Then there was darkness.

When I opened my eyes I was in my room. The sunlight was coming through the windows. My Aunt Mercedes was sitting beside my bed.

"Ah!" I cried, "my Aunt Mercedes! Is my father alive?"

"Nothing has happened," said she. "I have had an awful dream," I said.

I could scarcely think it had happened at all.

"Come into the air," she said. "You will die if you do not have air."

You see, I was upon the point of death.

When I staggered into the corridor, there was my father, and, heavens above—Morelo, looking at me with those wonderful eyes.

"Josefa," said my father, "this is Don Luis Ortega of Santa Barbara. He rode with you last night."

And my father laughed.

Don Luis stayed with us a month. He came again three weeks later. You know what happened. We were married.

My father has never allowed me to forget my adventure with Morelo.

CANAL BENEFITS JAPANESE.

Shipping men declare that the opening of the Panama canal will reduce the time between the Orient and New York about forty days.

This distance from Japan to the Pacific mouth of the canal should not consume more than thirty-five days, according to their calculations, and the trip from the canal to New York not more than six days. It is believed that the forty-one days' trip thus outlined may easily be squeezed into forty days by ambitious shippers.

The Japanese are preparing to play a very important part in the increased travel and freight business which will be promoted by the canal.

WITH LIMITATIONS.

"You are in favor of government ownership?"

"With certain limitations," replied Mr. Dustin Stax. "I'd welcome an arrangement by which the government would be pledged to buy any of my property that I'm tired of trying to run."

NEGRO HOBO INJURED

By Fall From L. & N. Freight Train While Stealing a Ride Thursday.

Thursday afternoon a negro, supposed to be a hobo, named Wetus Gibbs, fell from a freight train, a few miles north of town, and was painfully injured. Gibbs claims he lives in Somersville, N. C. He says he boarded the train at Nortonville. He was not starting for any special place, but just intended to go where the train took him.

He was discovered on the train by one of the brakemen, who, he claims, was trying to put him off. Gibbs had his knee and head cut badly and he also sustained several other cuts and bruises. He was brought here and is being cared for by the county.

Bamboo Boozie Bottle.

Anniston, Ala., July 31.—A large bamboo walking can was left in one of the local business houses last night, which, when examined, proved to be a walking barometer as well as a walking shoe. A large cork was fitted in the head of the cane, presumably to form a comfortable seat for the hand, but in reality it was for the purpose of keeping about a quart of whisky which was stored inside, from escaping. The cane consists of three joints of bamboo, about one and one-half inches in diameter, which have been hollowed out. It is highly polished, and the owner made it useful, as well as beautiful.

Because a coatall hanging over a generous sized peep-hole in the fence prevented at Paducah his clear view of the Henderson-Paducah game at League Park Sunday, a small boy of good parentage took out his knife and removed the offending piece of cloth. The whole proceeding was done under the eyes of the ground-keeper and the lad was promptly arrested on complaint of the irate owner of the coat. In Judge Lang's court he was dismissed when his parents offered to purchase a new garment for the one slashed.

Coming This Way.

Louisville is to get $1,300,000 and Lexington $300,000 of the crop loss fund assigned to Kentucky, according to tentative plans of the Treasury Department.

THE SKIRTLESS BATHING SUITS

Latest Atlantic City Beach Costume, Consisting of Jersey and Bloomers, Approved.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 31.—Of the new and daring bathing suit styles displayed on the beach this season—and there have been some which surpass anything ever seen here before—the skirtless bathing suit, shown for the first time, is the newest and the most daring and incidentally, the most becoming. No body objected, not even the beach guards, and the idea is destined to become popular here and at other resorts.

The suit consists of a sleeveless jersey-like affair, a trifle full and gathered in at the waist, bloomers, and, of course, stockings. On the beach, to be sure, the girls wear a long coat, but when they get ready for a dip, off comes the garment and in they go. Nobody is the wiser, they say, and they are far more comfortable and can swim more easily than in the old-fashioned skirt suit.

Family Reunion.

Trenton, Ky., July 31.—The general reunion of the Dickinson family, a large and influential connection, was held at the home of F. W. Walker, three miles from this city, Wednesday. A big basket dinner and barbecue being among the features. There were sixty-seven present. The oldest relative, W. S. Dickinson, aged 73, and the youngest, little Miss Marguerite Diceinson, aged one week.

In Bad and In Jail.

Louisville, Ky., July 29.—Samuel L. Wilhite, formerly city controller, charged with the embezzlement of $14,500, waived examination in police court to-day and was held to the grand jury. His bond was fixed at $10,000, in default of which he was remanded to jail. Wilhite is charged with hypothecating bonds of contractors deposited with the city to insure contracts. He is a member of a prominent Louisville family.

Odd-Looking Shark's Egg.

A shark's egg is one of the oddest looking things imaginable. It is unprovided with shell, but the contents are protected by a thick, leathery covering, almost as elastic as India rubber. The average size is 2 by 2 1/2 inches, and it is almost jet black.

SAN ANTONIO TEXAS SUICIDE

Was Niece Of The Late Dr. R. W. Ware, With Many Relatives Here.

Further information has been received concerning the death of Miss Elvira Davis, aged 40, of San Antonio, Texas, who committed suicide at Galveston. Miss Davis was a niece of the late Dr. R. W. Ware and the late W. W. Ware, of this city, and has many relatives here of prominence. Her mother was Mrs. Annie Ware Davis. A report was sent out from Galveston hinting at murder, but letters received by relatives clearly establish suicide as the cause of death. A San Antonio paper sent to the Kentuckian by Park Heaton, formerly of Hopkinsville, gives these details:

A letter received from Mrs. Banks Lowrance at Kerrville, niece of Miss Davis, definitely proves that the Galveston officials are wrong in their theory of murder, that the act was carried out just as it was planned and that the woman is Elvira Davis.

The letter was mailed from the train Sunday night en route to Houston, and received by Mrs. Lowrance Monday afternoon. On Tuesday Mrs. Lowrance received a suitcase from Miss Davis containing some of her belongings. This was shipped Monday afternoon from Houston. This shows that she was on her way to Galveston, where she probably arrived Monday night. Tuesday morning the body of Miss Davis was found on the beach washed up by the tide, which corresponds exactly with her statement that she was going to the sea, where she would swim out as far as she could and end it all with her little repeater.

NO FEAR OF DEATH.

The following is an extract from the letter received by Mrs. Lowrance:

"I try to be patient with me. I tried for six months to fight along, but I can't keep it up. This rheumatism has taken hold of me like it has your Aunt Georgia, only not so bad yet. She had me to help her along, but I have no one and will not go through a siege of sickness with only friends, no matter how good. I have no end of good friends, as well as my little niece, but they, like you, have their hands and hearts full, and a tedious old maid has no demand upon them. I do love each of you, and don't think because I have not visited you that I am indifferent, but I have been more tied down than I can tell you. Mr. Brackenridge is as good as can be, and it is not on account of any harshness of his or any scandal or any romance in my life. It's just simply this work-a-day world that wears one out sooner when they haven't a good home life of their own people in which to relax.

"Don't worry about what I am doing. By the time you get this it will be all over, and I really begin to feel better at the thoughts of the ordeal being over. If there is a God, a father of us, surely he can understand why we do these things. We did not ask to come into this world, and in my case it is not as if I had a family to grieve and suffer from my selfish act, if it is selfish. It would be if I had others depending on me in any way, and a good father does not expect us to stand more than we are able.

"Miss Eleanor is not here, and no one knows as much about what I am doing as you will. I am nailing this on the train that is taking me to the deep sea with my little repeater. There I shall take a long swim out with it and then all will be over without sensational headlines of a suicide or a missing woman, for the tide will

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache and a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. P. W. LANSING, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

carry me away, and hence, no horrid morgue to lie in, but the good, clean sea water and the blue sky will see me as I drift away.

"Promise me not to worry. I know it's all right, and your little auntie will be so much happier with it all over. Call the girlie if you can. I like Elvira, only pronounce it Elvera—it's the real Spanish, and is not what your Aunt Noonie used to call me.

"I told her and others that I was going away for a long trip to get rid of my rheumatism, which really is very bad. That is what has discouraged me so I am not fit to work. I simply cannot afford to be idle long. "Another reason you must not grieve or worry over my act is that death has to come to each of us some time, and now I am able to prepare for it myself. I have arranged everything, paid every debt. Try to love and forgive me. Your lonely little auntie."

The body was buried at San Antonio, fully identified.

Big Wheat Yield.

Clarksville, Tenn., July 29.—John B. Ferguson reports one of the best yields of wheat in this county. From seventy-eight acres of corn land he threshed 2100 bushels of No. 2 wheat, weighing sixty-one pounds per bushel. This makes twenty-seven bushels per acre, which is far above the average yield on the best wheat land of Montgomery county. On forty acres of better land he grew 1,400 bushels, or thirty-five bushels per acre. Mr. Ferguson says he will use 1,000 bushels of his crop for fattening hogs.

Guarded By Gunmen.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 31.—B. F. Graham, formerly of Nashville, who is wanted there on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, is today at liberty here on a $25,000 bail. In order that he may not be kidnapped and taken back to Nashville, Graham has hired two gunmen to protect him. They are at his side night and day and are always ready to resist any attack upon their employer. Attorneys for both sides continued the fight at Sacramento.

Missionaries Discover Waterfall.

Father Colhaechini of the Salesian order, founded by Don Bosco, which has important mission stations among the Indians of Brazil, reports the discovery of a great waterfall on the Rio das Mortes, in the Mato Grosso, which he named after Plus X. The Rio das Mortes, which is between 150 and 200 meters wide and more than two meters deep in its higher course, narrows down gradually to about eight meters, and the immense volume of its waters dashes down through a mass of high rocks in a wonderful waterfall more than 500 meters long. Father Colhaechini had the name of Plus X cut in the rock near the waterfall and erected a large cross made from the branches of two trees on the brink of the water. He then explored the lower course of the river. The surface of the region crossed by Father Colhaechini and his party of horrors is covered by strata of sandstone deeply eroded and indented by water, and the river basin was surrounded by ridges and ranges of hills.—New York Sun.

KENTUCKY HORSES

At Eastern Fairs Are Making Good Showing.

Several Christian county horses are now off in the fair circuit. At Petersburg, Ind., Wednesday Harvey Foster's "Edna Vernon" and Buck Campbell's "F. B. C." were in the pacing and were close second and third to the winner.

N. O. Allen is also in the East with four horses, viz.: C. C. Carter's "Denny Smith," Tom Garnett's "Mary Barbour," J. J. VanCleave's "Black Adward" and "Moko Pearl," belonging to Murry Bros., of Allensville. His first stop was Wilmington Delaware, and from there he will make a round of fairs in that section.

First Vessel.

The first ocean going vessel to traverse the Panama Canal will be the Cristobal, which is to go from Colon to Balboa next Monday.

Dogwood Doings.

Dogwood, Ky., July 31.—Charlie Carter, of Ft. Worth, Texas, visited his brother last week. He reports plenty of rain in that State this year.

Mrs. Genetty King, who fell and injured her hip recently, is able to be up again.

Rev. Moss, of Russellville, filled the pulpit at New Barren Spring church last Saturday and Sunday.

Charlie Carter visited Hopkinsville a few days ago to see his daughter.

Joe Fruit was in Hopkinsville a few days ago on business.

Mrs. S. T. King, who spent six weeks with her sister, near Hopkinsville, is now at home. She has lung trouble but is better at this time.

Will Underwood has been on the sick list for a week, suffering from malarial fever. He has a very sore throat.

The Missionary Baptist meetings at Pleasant Hill, New Barren Spring and Macedonia churches were largely attended and there was plenty of dinner for all.

The apple crop will be small this year and there will be only about half a crop of peaches. The blackberry crop bid fair to be fine, but the dry, hot weather dried the berries up and not more than half of them ripened.

The writer attended the funeral of Mrs. Hale in the Bluff Springs neighborhood. Mrs. Hale died in Hopkinsville. She was a most excellent christian woman. She joined the Baptist church early in life and lived a consecrated life all of her days. SENRAB.

Logan-Bailey.

Invitations as follows have been received in the city: "Mr. and Mrs. Winford Bailey invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter, Mary Day to Mr. Ben H. Logan on Monday evening, the third of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen, at eight o'clock. Hill Crest, Christiansburg, Ky." Mr. Logan has many relatives in this county. He is a nephew of Mrs. W. H. Jesup Charles McPherson, of Pennsylvania, will come to Kentucky to take part in the wedding. While in the state he will spend two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McPherson, of this city.

Emergency Hint.

Persons falling out of aeroplanes will find it quite useless to depend upon any of the ordinary safety devices, antidotes, block systems, fire extinguishers, life preservers or other similar contrivances, for though all of them are perfectly good in their proper time and place, they do not meet this particular emergency. The only thing to do when convinced you are falling is to make a thorough examination of the underlying landscape. For this purpose it is often well to have handy a geological chart, or relief map. When you have thoroughly familiarized yourself with the topography of the approaching landscape, it is then perfectly simple, by two or three little bodily maneuvers, to pick out a relatively soft spot. If you have acted wisely in the matter, there is nothing more to do but lie there and wait for help.—Life.

MEET AT CHURCH HILL

South Union To Entertain Bethel Baptist Association For Two Days.

The ninetieth annual session of Bethel Baptist Association will convene with South Union church, at Church Hill, next Tuesday morning at ten o'clock and remain in session for two days. Dr. T. W. Blakey and Rev. H. E. Gabby, of this city, are the moderators. There are thirty-nine churches in the association. People from a distance will be entertained by the members of the church. There will be dinner on the ground both days.

Dead In Pullman Car.

Louisville, Ky., July 31.—Apparently having struggled home to die, after a fruitless search for health in Florida, Owen Mallen, 56, of Newport, Ky., was found dead on the Pullman attached to an L. & N. train a few minutes before it reached Louisville. Realizing that he might not survive the long trip he had written a note directing the coroner to forward the body to a Cincinnati undertaker if he should lose the race against death. Coroner Duncan is of the opinion that death was due to tuberculosis.

The wedding will take place in August.

RAN AWAY AT STROKE OF CLOCK

Transfer Team Made Quick Trip to Feeding Place.

Late Thursday afternoon a horse being driven to one of Williamson's transfer wagons, became frightened and ran away. The wagon was leaving the machine shop of J. J. Metcalfe with a shipment that it was taken to the L. & N. depot. The horse got scared when it heard the town clock strike five and began to kick and run. Josh O'Brien, the colored driver, was knocked off of the wagon and fell on the street in front of the new government building. Porter K. Peyton, who was also on the wagon, was thrown off and badly injured.

The horse then ran away to the depot, where it was headed. Right in front of the depot the wagon hit a post and broke off both the shafts. The horse kept on running and went back to the Williamson Transfer Co., leaving the wagon at the depot.

Mr. Peyton had his hand cut and was badly bruised. O'Brien received several bruises and minor injuries.

Miss Cooper Hurt.

Miss Mary Cooper, of Hopkinsville, is confined to her room at the home of Philip Thompson, south of town, as the result of spraining her ankle while stepping out of a bus while on a picnic near Cadiz last Friday.—Record.

Miss Lucy Wilson has resigned her place in the H. B. M. A. office to take a better place with the Forbes Mfg. Co.

WESTMINSTER BIBLE SCHOOL

Being Taught Daily By a Faculty Of The Church Workers.

Tuesday morning a Daily Vacation Bible School was started here by some of the ladies of the city. The Daily Vacation Bible School movement is an old one. It was started in New York in 1901 and has grown steadily in its influence since that time. The purpose of the school is to develop clean, virile Christ-like characters in boys and girls.

Already about twenty children have been enrolled here and the school will be limited to fifty pupils. The school will be continued for about three weeks. The children are taught many helpful things and no expense is attached to entering the school.

The school is being held in the Westminster Presbyterian church each morning from 8:30 to 12.

Those who have charge of the work here are: Miss Virgie Nourse, raffia; Miss Nina Rickman, music; Miss Mary McPherson, Bible stories; Miss Nell Tandy, sewing, and Mrs. W. T. Fowler, morning talks.

Binkley-Johnson.

Lynn Binkley and Miss Bertha Johnson, a runaway couple from beyond Hopkinsville, were married here Wednesday morning about 8 o'clock. They came in on the Tennessee Central at 7 o'clock and went directly to the court house, where a license was secured and the ceremony performed.—Clarksville Leaf-Chronicle.

SUES FOR DAMAGES

Defeated Candidate Wants $25,000 from Farmer Who Opposed Him.

Oversboro, Ky., July 29.—A damage suit for $5,000 was filed by Judge E. P. Taylor yesterday in the Circuit Court against C. J. Moseley, a prominent farmer of the county. The suit is the outcome of the close and heated race Judge Taylor made for County Clerk of Daviess county last year against James Weir, and in his suit he alleges that his defeat was due, or largely due, to wrongful and malicious statements made by Moseley about Taylor, which contributed to his defeat.

The Boy Wonder.

About three years ago there was a stir in educational and scientific circles over William Sidis, a 14-year-old Boston boy, who easily solved mathematical problems that "stumped" many of the most experienced professors.

Young Sidis entered Harvard at an age many years younger than any previous applicant, and without apparent effort distanced his fellow students in languages and mathematics. So marvelous were his achievements in the latter that professors of mathematics from other colleges and distant countries journeyed to Boston to interview him and to witness some of his work. The most abstruse problems they could concoct were submitted to the child, who solved them as readily as the average boy works his simple arithmetic examples. Often young Sidis used no pencil or paper, but made the solution mentally.

He became a proverb in all big colleges, and his course through Harvard has been watched with the greatest interest and curiosity. He has now graduated and is ready to begin his life work, and the question everywhere is: What will his marvelous mental gift avail him in the struggle for a living?—Com-Appeal

CHURCH CENSUS

Of Tuberculosis Cases to Be Taken Nov. 29.

A Tuberculosis Census of thousands of churches in various parts of the country will be taken up in September, under the direction of The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis. The census will be part of the preparation for the Fifth Annual Tuberculosis Day to be observed during the week of November 29th.

The ministers of several thousand churches will be asked to report on the number of deaths from tuberculosis in the last year, the number of living cases in their parishes on September 1st, the number of deaths from all causes, and the number of members or communicants. These figures will be made the basis of an educational campaign, which will culminate in the Tuberculosis Day movement, for which occasion sermon and lecture outlines and other forms of tuberculosis literature will be distributed free to ministers.

Last year nearly 70,000 churches, schools, and other bodies took part in the Tuberculosis Day observance. The movement had the endorsement of leading church officials of every denomination. More than 1200 anti-tuberculosis societies scattered all over the country will work this year to make Tuberculosis Day a success.

UP IN OLD KENTUCKY.

(By J. B. Wyatt, County Judge of Marshall County)

"It's up in Old Kentucky where once the bullets flew,
And the green and waving blades of grass felt the fall of crimson dew;
The bulletshave ceased their whizzing
and the pistol's hanging high,
For up in Old Kentucky it is very, very "dry."

It's up in Old Kentucky where the clouds refuse to rain
And the sun it shines more hotly and the crops are on the wane,
Where the Captains and the Colonels
and everybody swore,
It's "drier" in Kentucky than it's ever been before.

It's up in Old Kentucky where once the grass was green
And the Prohibition Demagogue is feelin' mighty mean,
Where every blessed Toper's got cobwebs in his throat,
And damns the Prohibitionists because they've got his goat.

It's up in Old Kentucky where once they "roll'd 'em high,
Now they meet and pray for "dampness" beneath a cloudless sky,
Where the bluegrass it is withered,
likewise the corn and rye,
For it's H—! in Old Kentucky, where everything's gone dry.

Lordling Love and Lady Fair.

A man is known by the company he keeps; a woman by the company she avoids.

A girl of twenty judges a married man by his treatment of her; a girl of thirty by the way he treats his wife.

A woman may be a mystery to a man and to herself, but never to another woman.

Smart people never entertain angels unawares; they ask a few friends to meet them.

The road to the graveyard is paved with successful operations.

There is no discount on the cost of experience.—August Lippincott's.

STANLEY SPEAKS 9 TIMES TUESDAY IN UNION COUNTY

Candidate for Senate Winds Up Day's Work At Sturgis.

Sturgis, Ky., July 29.—A. O. Stanley covered Union county Tuesday like a cyclone, making nine speeches to over 2,500 people, winding up with a great address of one hour and twenty minutes at Sturgis tonight.

Mr. Stanley was introduced by Dr. Sam Henry, county representative. Mr. Stanley offered any minister $100 for charitable purposes who would stand up and declare Beckham was for national or State-wide prohibition, and say Beckham had authorized the statement. He declared the Republicans were not really holding any primary this year, as no fight was being made for Republican candidates, all the Republican organs being for Beckham.

Boiling Down a Profession.

A young fellow living in one of Indiana's small towns was graduated from the high school and looked about for some easy, yet lucrative profession. He finally decided to study medicine, and settled down in the office of the town's most popular doctor for a summer's reading. As he read he watched this busy man's hours of work. One day in the late summer the doctor came in out of a drenching rain, tired out, and a trifle cross. Glancing at the immaculate young fellow, whose heels were reposing on the office desk, he asked brusquely: "Still think you want to be a doctor?" "Ye-es," came the languid answer, "but I've decided to practice only on fair days, and not go out at nights."

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so so much at so low a price.

This is a time of great events, and you will want the news accurately and promptly. All the countries of the world steadily draw closer together, and the telegraph wires bring the happenings of every one. No other newspaper has a service equal to that of The World and it relates everything fully and promptly.

The World long since established a record for impartiality, and anybody can afford its Thrice-a-Week edition, which comes every other day in the week, except Sunday. It will be of particular value to you now. The Thrice-a-Week World also abounds in other strong features, serial stories, humor, markets, cartoons; in fact, everything that it to be found in a first class daily.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and Hopkinsville Kentuckian together for one year for $2.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.

Preserving Pencil Writing.

If you have a pencilled letter which you want to keep a long while, lay it in a shallow dish and cover it with skimmed milk. When the paper is thoroughly soaked through let the milk drain off, and dry the paper very gradually. This makes the writing last, so that it cannot be easily rubbed out.

ART IS SOMEWHAT PUZZLING

If This Is a True Story, Futurist Paintings Should Be Provided With a Label.

Many unkind things have been said about the difficulty of making head or tail of the futurist paintings, but the latest story is positively cruel. It was told the other evening across the dinner table of a well-known caricaturist.

The caricaturist said that he had that day paid a visit with a number of friends to the studio of a futurist painter in order to examine the paintings he had prepared for a forthcoming exhibition.

"What a striking piece of work!"
exclaimed one of the visitors. "A storm at sea, of course."

"Nonsense," replied another. "One can see that it's a landscape with the setting sun."

"Rubbish!" snapped a third. "I saw at once that it's a Japanese volcano in eruption."

"It reminds me," murmured a frivolous critic, "of a plate of tomatoes or a lobster struck by lightning.
I'm not quite sure which."

"Don't be ridiculous!" exclaimed another. "Anybody can see plainly that it's a naval battle."

The unfortunate artist broke out furiously:

"It's nothing of the kind!" he bellowed. "The picture merely represents a simple country wedding."

RELICS OF UNKNOWN RACE.

Dr. George A. Reisner, professor of Egyptology at Harvard, who is conducting explorations and excavations in Egypt, has sent word that he has discovered evidences of a people and a civilization that existed in upper Egypt 3,700 years ago and of which no record or evidence has heretofore existed. He made these discoveries at a point which marks one of the outposts to the south of ancient Egyptian civilization, near Kerna and not far from the Nile.

According to Doctor Reisner the inhabitants were neither Egyptians nor negroes, and their pottery is the finest and most beautiful made in the Nile valley.

Many of the treasures in ivory,
stone and pottery which Doctor Reisner has sent to the Boston Museum of Fine Arts were taken from the graves of chiefs.

Apparently six or seven subjects were buried alive with the body of each chief.

WILL MAKE GARDENS.

The countess of Warwick, who is an enthusiastic amateur gardener, has decided to practise garden planning professionally. She planted some Mediterranean gardens for French friends, and they were so pleased that she was persuaded to do more work of the kind. She has selected a staff of women assistants from Studley castle, in Warwickshire, the college for women gardeners that she herself established some years ago.
Women will be employed exclusively on the work, to be done under Lady Warwick's direction.

DOGS FIND MAN IN CROWD.

Arrest for Attempted Arson Follows Immediately.

Red Temple and Neely Carter,
who handle the bloodhounds for Capt.
Joe Barney of the Memphis Police Department, returned last night from Bay, Ark., where they made a most sensational arrest.

Tuesday night an effort was made to burn the residence of F. Hatch at Bay, and yesterday morning a call was made for the Memphis dogs.
Sherlock and Valley Queen in charge of their handlers reached the scene at 11 o'clock, and in 20 minutes an arrest had been made.

Some old clothing had been saturated with oil and placed under the house. The dogs took the trail at this point and followed the street about a while. Suddenly they turned and picked J. J. Haley out of the crowd much to his surprise. He protested his innocence and wanted to fight, but Deputy Sheriff J. P. Glover placed the man under arrest, and he was taken to Jonesboro and lodged in jail.

Haley according to the officer, had a grudge against Hatch and the actions of the dogs was not surprising to him as he suspected him all the time. The clothing used in the effort to burn the house, it is charged by Glover, can be shown to have belonged to Haley.—Com. Appeal.

WILSON'S RIGHT TO VOTE

COSTLY TO CALIFORNIA.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 27.—When
Charles Wilson was in the coming State primaries, and he insists on his right to do so, it will cost the State $100. Election officials estimated to-day that his vote will be the most expensive in the State, and perhaps in the United States. Wi-son lives at the Isthmus, on Catalina Island, and is the only voter in his precinct which is twelve miles distant from Avalon, the only town on the island. Three voters will be sent by launch of stage from Avalon to the Isthmus, and with Wilson will constitute an election board. Wilson then will vote and the board will cast up and certify the returns.

Saved By Dog.

Connersville, Ind., July 29.—A big collie dog came to the rescue of Miss Maude Newhouse, 19, who was betrayed by a tramp at her home, north of here. The dog leaped at his throat. The tramp caught the dog's head with both hands, struck it a heavy blow and made his escape through a window and over a rear fence.

Held To Be Crazy.

New York, July 29.—Having refused to eat until released, James E.
the anarchist, has been transferred to the Matteawan asylum. A commissioner of Correction Katherine R.
Davis says that Becky Edson, now
on a hunger strike on Rikers Island, will receive the same treatment
unless she changes her attitude.

No Chances for Him.

A dealer selling clothing in a small town asked an Irishman who was passing if he would buy a suit. He added: "You can have it for ten dollars." To which he replied: "Hush, sir, if tuppence would buy the makings of a topcoat for an elephant I couldn't

MEN IN MIND IN HOPKINSVILLE

People of Prominence In The Pearl City of The Penny-royal.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH NO. 42.

Youngest Main Street Merchant In The City, Robt. T. Stowe, Jr.

The Kentuckian presents to-day one of the youngest business men of Hopkinsville, but one who has already made for himself, in the brief space of two years, a place among successful Main street merchants.

On August 11, 1891, Robert T. Stowe, Jr., was born near Newstead in Christian county, and his childhood was spent on his father's farm. When he was still a schoolboy, the family moved to town and Robert became in due time a High School boy with a predilection for athletics.

ROBERT T. STOWE, JR.

He was a member of the strongest football team the Hopkinsville High School ever turned out, in 1909, and helped to win the championship that year. His father, R. T. Stowe, Sr., was elected Circuit Court Clerk in 1909 and Robert's first employment was as deputy County Court Clerk. In 1911 he took a vacation that he would like to live in California and went west on a prospecting tour. He soon decided that Hopkinsville was good enough for him and returned and in August 1912 as it had in the formation of the Averitt-Stowe Drug Co., and began business at the famous Phoenix Hotel corner, where success at once came to the new company. Last winter Mr. Averitt retired from the company and moved to Milan, Tennessee, and R. T. Stowe, Sr., now interested in the business, but the son is the guiding spirit of the business, who carried it safely through its "second summer." In the mean while one of the strongest reasons why Robert didn't like California has manifested itself. Soon after his return he was married to Miss Elizabeth Bacon, of Frankfort, and they are house-keeping in a pretty new cottage on Hartree street.

His drug store is one of the most popular ones in the city. He has a large personal following and the young people especially are his business friends. GE. Guther, the oldest and best known pharmacist in the city, has charge of the prescription department.

Mother of Quadruplets.

Athens, Kan., July 21. Mrs. Martin Butler, wife of Martin F. Butler, a farmer living several miles southeast of Bingham, William county, Tennessee, is the proud mother of four girl babies, born Sunday afternoon and Monday morning while the mother was visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Conway, who live on a farm several miles from this city. All of the quartet weigh from three to four pounds apiece, and the mother and children are all doing well. Mrs. Butler is 23. She is the only living one of a group of triplets, the only children her parents have ever had.

FERTILIZER POOLS FORMED

Announcement Made By Geoffrey Morgan, The County Demonstrator.

Hopkinsville, Ky.
July 31st, 1914.

Dear Sir:—The Fertilizer Purchasing Committees of the Granges and Farmers Clubs of Christian county, met in Hopkinsville on July 29th and at this meeting some advantageous changes were suggested to our former plans. The object of the Pool is to enable the dealers and farmers of the county to purchase fertilizers at a lower price.

Purchasing Committees have been appointed in every section of the county and every farmer is urged to see one of these men and sign up with him for the kind and amount of fertilizer that he needs for fall delivery.

It is also necessary to state his shipping point. He must also state whether he wishes to pay cash at the car, or time. If he wishes to pay cash he must write a "C" after his name, or a "T" if he wishes time.

"Cash at the car" means that he must either pay cash, or give a good note, due December 1st, 1914, without interest.

"Time" means that he must give a good note due August 1st, 1915, bearing 6 per cent interest.

All fertilizers will be sold with a guarantee as to their analysis and mechanical condition.

At the time of opening the bids for the Pool, the Purchasing Committees will have the right to reject any or all bids, and all bids will be rejected unless the price quoted is materially lower than the price at which fertilizers have been selling in the past.

Only those who sign up will be able to purchase fertilizers at the Pool prices, and then only for the amount opposite their names.

All farmers are urged to sign up promptly for the full amount of fertilizer they need, as the success of the Pool depends on the amount of tonnage signed for. The greater the tonnage the less the price will be. All lists must be in Hopkinsville not later than August 8th, and no fertilizer can be pooled after that date.

Members of Fertilizer Purchasing Committees: B. G. Nelson, chairman; W. O. King, W. H. Massie, T. J. Bingham, Ed. Fritz, Walter Gardner, T. F. Clardy, W. H. Adams, George Barnes, W. D. Bowles, D. E. McGord, J. J. Stevenson, Geo. Rives, J. A. McKee, John W. Garnett, R. L. Horn, Hunter Moss, J. E. Giles, R. H. McGaughey, Rev. T. T. Powell, Dr. C. C. Craft, R. P. Pool, R. H. Rives, J. G. Armstrong, W. B. Cloud, John W. Perrie, Q. A. Elliott, J. F. Dixon, L. H. Southson, C. S. Coleman, Walter Martin and D. T. Cranor.

See any one of the above men and sign up your fertilizer promptly.

Yours very truly,
GEOFFREY MORGAN,
Farm Demonstrator.

Church Messengers.

The Second Baptist church elected messengers Wednesday night to represent it at Bethel Association, which meets next Tuesday and Wednesday at South Union Baptist church, as follows: Rev. L. L. Spurlin, Messrs. A. E. Word and A. N. Anderson; and as alternates, Messrs. Long, Otho McCord and G. C. LeGate. Rev. W. R. Goodman is a hold-over messenger.

Nothing Short of Calamity.

Holding a glass of clear honey in his right hand, father observed impressively: "It cost the little bees many a weary trip to fill this with sweetness from the flowers." Little Laura, who had been listening closely, exclaimed, with great earnestness: "Wouldn't it have been too bad if one of them had dropped the glass?"

NOW NEARING COMPLETION

Addition To Keach Store To Be Ready By September First.

The handsome new four-story red brick building facing Tenth street, owned by Mrs. Jos. F. Garnett and to be occupied by the Keach Furniture Co., is nearing completion. The work on the building was started about the middle of June and has been rapidly carried on.

The building will be used by the Keach Furniture Co. both as a sales room and as a store room. This addition to the space now occupied by the firm is made necessary by the increase of business the firm has had in the past few years.

The present wareroom will be converted into a sample room. The carpet department will also be enlarged and will be made modern and up-to-date in every detail. The entire work is expected to be completed and the building ready for occupancy by the first part of September.

The work on the building is under the personal supervision of J. H. Dagg, who is the contractor. The plans for the building were drawn by John H. Waller.

DAVID GRACE

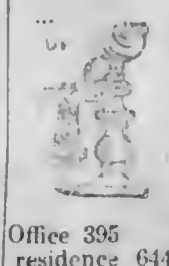

Of Crofton Vicinity Loses Home By Fire.

The dwelling house of "Uncle" Dave Grace, six miles East of Crofton, was burned Thursday at 11 o'clock. It caught from a kitchen flue. The house with all its contents was destroyed, including a supply of meat. Loss several hundred dollars, with no insurance.

The houses of Mrs. Jordan Bass, of Johnson's, and George Hendrix, of Hiney's Mill, were also burned the same day. Mrs. Bass had some insurance.

Dayton in Town.

Walter Dayton, who has been playing in the outfield with Nashville for the past month, was in town yesterday reporting to Pres. Bassett of the K. L. T. League. Although he did good work with the stick and in the field, he was released by Manager Bill Schwarz. Dayton realized that he was a catcher and not an outfielder and as the Vols had a full backstopping staff, Dayton wished to get with some club where he could get a tryout as a receiver.

Hydrophobia Feared.

Beckham Gates, aged 13, son of Finis Gates, of Fruit Hill, was bitten by a dog supposed to be rabid on July 22. Last Tuesday Mr. Gates took the boy to Bowling Green for Pasteur treatment. He also took the dog's head for analysis. The dog died soon after it bit the boy.

Will Leave In Trigg.

Rev. Frank Wilson and Mrs. Wilson, who have been living at Anderson, Mo., for some time, have moved back to Trigg county and for the present will reside with Garrett Salter, near Caledonia. Mrs. Wilson was formerly Miss Susie Cooper, of this county.—Record.

Back From Bham.

Former Policeman W. D. Carter has returned from Birmingham. He tendered his resignation, saying he would not be back, but returned several days ago.

Mr. Rives Convalescent.

Hon. Frank Rives, who has been in a Nashville sanitarium for two weeks, expects to return home to-day, convalescent.

Killed By Lighting.

Katherine Connelly, a little daughter of M. J. Connelly, of Paducah, was killed by lightning Wednesday, while on a visit at Waverly, Tenn.

INVALID FROM AN ACCIDENT

Aged Lady Passes Away Near Kelly, Eighty-Three Years of Age.

Thursday night Mrs. Kitty Fuller died at the home of J. W. Underwood near Kelly. Mrs. Fuller broke her hip in last March and had been an invalid since that time. She was 83 years of age and a member of the Baptist church. The interment took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Boyd burying ground.

BORN IN KENTUCKY

Arkansas Woman 112 Years Has 723 Descendants.

Mountain Home Ark., July 29.—Mrs. Flyina Waldron, of Marion county, has just celebrated her 112th birthday at her home on Sister Creek where she has lived forty-four years.

Mrs. Waldron was born in Ohio county, Kentucky, where she lived until coming to Arkansas. She has a brother living, Elias Gregory of Louisville, Ky.

She has never worn glasses. She frequently walks five miles a day.

Misses Myrtha and Florence Southall went to Clarksville today to visit their aunt, Mrs. J. E. Rudolph.

Miss Helen Royal has resigned her place as cashier with the Planters' Hardware Co.

Condition Improved.

The condition of Mrs. C. H. Bush was slightly improved yesterday but she is still quite ill at her home on South Main.

COLLECTED THEM IN A HURRY

Method of Commander of Irregulars May Not Have Been Orthodox, but It Was Effective.

A company of irregulars enlisted on the Union side, for the special purpose of coping with Confederate guerrillas, called themselves the Snake Hunters. They wore no very definite uniform, and the arms they carried were of every imaginable kind and pattern.

Their commander, Captain Bagges, would shout: "Put down them blasted guns, and be d—d to you!" Which, of course, meant "Snack arms." "Now to your holes, you ugly ruts, and don't let me see you again till I want you!" which signified "Break ranks!" Whereupon the Snake Hunters would disperse on the run, with whoops and yells.

One day a couple of men from Philadelphia, having witnessed this interesting style of drill, invited Captain Bagges to take a drink in a grog shop. The men of the company having been dismissed in the manner described, they asked him how he expected to get them back if he wanted them in a hurry. "I'll show you how," replied Bagges, and, going to the door, he fired three barrels of his revolver. The echo of the third report was still lingering among the cliffs when the entire bunch of Snake Hunters rushed into the barroom with a whole menagerie of roars, screeches and hee-haws, and without question or apology called for tin cups.

This demonstration of their mode of falling in cost the man from the Quaker City $5.

Paducah 2, Cairo 0.

Wednesday's Games.

Henderson 2, Owensboro 0.
Cairo 3, Paducah 2.

Before fairly good crowds the Henderson-Owensboro series was finished up this week. Wednesday was a pitchers' battle between Nicks and Fozzstock. "Shogun" Nicks, who was on the firing line for the Hens, did fine twirling and kept the Owensboro bunch mowing at the breeze. The final count was 2 to 0.

Thursday's fray was a pounding feast in which all manner of bingles were served up. Fence-buster Allen was chief slizzer. He smote the one upon the back that sounded over the fence in the right garden.

Lyman Johnson, who pitched for Owensboro, is a former Hoptown Slabster and the Mogul fans were expecting to see him win. Leach, the erratic little port-side flinger, hurled the spheroid for the Hens. The game ended 8 to 5 in Henderson's favor.
